

2nd Annual Hawaii Education Leadership Summit

Best Practice Strategies for Integrating Technology and Online Resources

Wednesday, November 5, 2014

8:30am-3:30pm

Hawaii Convention Center

Presented by The Hawaii Society for Technology in Education (HSTE)

*Join Hawaii's educational leaders, local and national experts, and guest speaker-
Dr. Steve Edwards in a community of learner's model to discuss best practices*

The Hawaii Education Leadership Summit (HELs) is designed for leadership teams from public, independent, charter, and parochial schools to explore the multitude of ways that technology and online resources are supporting learning toward the 21st century competencies, common core standards, and/or online learning models. The summit is designed to have your leadership team work together on goals, so it is recommended that each school bring two to four representatives from leadership positions (principals, vice-principals, curriculum specialists, system administrators). As part of the summit, roundtable breakout sessions will allow you to connect with experts from around the state and country, and provide you time to network with like-minded colleagues, so that you leave the summit with a set of goals, resources, and a community that can support you moving forward.

There will be a registration fee of $150 per person. Space is limited, so please enroll early. Deadline for registration is ~~October 20th~~ → October 27th. Please send attached registration form to info@hste.org.

A continental breakfast and boxed lunch will be provided. More information about HELs and other events that week go to www.hste.org

Dr. Steve Edwards successfully implemented numerous programs to improve student performance during his sixteen-year tenure as a school administrator. Dr. Edwards also has been instrumental in helping many other school districts tailor similar programs with positive, far-reaching results. In addition, Dr. Edwards is an internationally known keynote speaker, facilitator and trainer, regularly featured as a content expert on television and radio on topics such as school safety, school climate and reform. He has worked in 49 states and 39 countries. Dr. Edwards has published numerous articles on school reform and leadership, and has co-authored five books, which address school reform initiatives and leadership development. He has also served as a professor of educational leadership for both the University of Connecticut and the George Washington University.

Thank you to our generous sponsors!
